Krevitz, who is 37 years old, was seized while trtyng to harangue the workers in the E. W. Bliss factory in Brooklyn after he had been discharged when he returned to the plant armed with a pistol to get his tools. It took three detectives and a watchman to overpower him.

After declaring he had a little machine shop in Manhattan where he was making bombs, Krevitz predicted the downfall of the United States Government in two weeks.

TOLD PEACE IS COME

Medieval Ceremony Attends Reading of King's Proclamation

London, July 3.—London waited yesterday while a page from medieval romance was re-enacted on one of her busiest corners. For half an hour traffic was tied up, while gorgeously clad heralds, amid the fanfare of trumpets, marched in procession from St. James Palace to Charing Cross, preceding the reading of the King's proclamation that peace had been signed.

The proclamation, read by the Garter King of Arms, stated "that whereas a definite treaty of peace between us and associated governments and Germany was concluded at Versailles June 28," all loyal subjects were "to govern themselves accordingly."

The proclamation was read at five different points in London by the Heraldic Brotherhood, and in accordance with the ancient ritual the first reading was from the balcony of St. James' Palace.

POOR IMMIGRANTS DUPES

Arrests Reveal Alleged Widespread Plot to Exploit Foreigners

Trenton, July 3.—An alleged widespread plot to induce immigrants to come to the United States and then use them as professional beggars was exposed Tuesday when Solomon N. Hanna, a former restaurant proprietor here, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Wilson on charges of violating the Federal criminal code.

Arthur Ramsdell, special agent of the Department of Justice, who made the arrest, claims that Hanna and his confederates started immigrants out as beggars, allowing them part of the spoils, and then demanded their entire receipts under threat of exposure to the Government.

Hanna was arrested upon information furnished by George Michaels and Zia Frank. The former charges that Hanna threatened to have him deported unless he paid over $100 and Frank claims Hanna sold him a passport.

PLAYS ROLE OF REAL BAD MAN IN MOVIES

Robert Taylor, Colored, Comes To Grief After Escapade

ATTACKS POLICEMAN

Snatches Pistol From Store of Fred Ayers—Captured and Subdued After Short Chase—Fined $100.

Robert Taylor, colored, eighteen years old, who hails from Stafford county, Va., and who is employed on a farm west of Alexandria, at 8.30 o'clock this morning essayed the role of the real bad man from the west. His career, however, was brought to a sudden halt by the police and soon he was languishing behind prison bars thoroughly repentant for the role had played. He simply muttered "I am crazy."

It happened in this way. Taylor went into the store of Frederick Ayers and asked to see a pistol. A weapon on which there was a price tag of $9 was shown him. Then Taylor asked to see cartridges for such a pistol. When a box was handed him by the proprietor he beat a hasty retreat from the premises. Mr. Ayers, who was behind the counter, grapped a pistol and gave chase. Mr. Ayers' fired over the negro's head with the view of scaring him. This, however, seemed only to frighten Taylor to such an extent that he ran like a deer. The negro was cornered by Policeman Rawlett, while in the alley bounded by Pitt, Royal and Cameron and in the meantime Police man Raymond Smith came up.

During the chase Taylor succeeded in loading the pistol and discharged it once as he ran through the alley. A young man passing through the alley had a narrow escape from being shot.

When finally cornered by Policeman Rawlett, Taylor clubbed the officer over the head with the pistol, inflicting several cuts.

Policeman Smith at this juncture arrived on the scene and soon subdued the prisoner with his night stick, inflicting several cuts on Taylor's head.

Taylor was later arraigned before Justice Thompson and the court after hearing the evidence imposed a fine of $100. In the event of his failure to pay the fine Taylor will spend the next three months on the state road force.

YOUNG MEN MAY VOTE

In reply to an inquiry addressed to the attorney-general by Landon Lowry, an attorney of Bedford, Va., J. D. Hank, Jr., assistant attorney-general, advises that young men reaching the age of twenty-one within thirty days of the election in November may qualify to vote by paying their poll taxes for 1919 before registration books are closed, which, under the law, are closed thirty days prior to election.

Opinion of the attorney-general's office, in substance, merely reaffirms construction of the law that has been fololwed ever since the new constitution became effective. In this city, young men becoming of age within thirty days before election have not only been permitted to vote, but have qualified at the election in which they offered to vote. Such voters are not required to pay the poll tax "at least six months prior to the date of the first regular election in which he offers to vote," as provided in the constitution for other voters.

6,000 TO WATCH HUNS

This Force of Americans Will Probably be Stationed at Coblenz

Paris, July 3.—Six weeks from now the American troops in Germany will number not more than 6.0000, providing the Germans show an intention in the meantime faithfully to carry out the terms of the treaty of peace.

General Pershing made this announcement at a conference with American newspaper men yesterday. But he added:

"America's army of occupation ceased to exist yesterday. It will be known henceforth as the American force in Germay or 'on the Rhine.' General Henry Allen, former commander of the Ninth Division, will command it. General Hunter Liggett returning home at his own request. The force will be stationed only at one point, probably Coblenz.

"Of the five American divisions now on the Rhine, the Fourth and Fifth are preparing to move homeward within the next few days.

"The Second and Third Divisions are scheduled to follow in a few weeks."

Mineola, N. Y., July 3.—No one has claimed the body of Dr. Walter Keene Wilkins, the aged physician who hanged himself in the Nassau County jail here Sunday after his conviction of first degree murder for killing his wife at their Long Beach home. County authorities said yesterday no money was available for funeral expenses.

Dr. Wilkins' cash, about $50, and some jewelry are in the possession of the coroner, who explained that the money cannot under the law be turned over to the undertaker who has the body. The coroner indicated a burial at public expense was likely.

In a note which Dr. Wilkins wrote before he committed suicide he asked that his body be cremated.

BOMB PLOT PROVES TO BE ONLY CANARD

Mysterious Packages Left on Postoffice Steps Cause Investigation

POLICE OPEN "BOMBS"

Scent Plot to Blow Up Federal Building—Packages Contain Only Tin Cans Cleverly Camouflaged.

They thought the bomb plotters. Reds or something of that sort were in Alexandria last night. Two very mysterious packages were surreptitiously left on the steps of the city Postoffice.

The packages were so suspicious looking that a lady living in the neighborhood called police headquarters and told of the mysterious looking packages on the St. Asaph street steps of the government building.

A plot to blow up the city postoffice was the belief of the police sleuths, the papers being full of accounts of the proposed reign of terroism which it was reported would be tried out on Independence day.

It was thought that possibly some of the Reds were simply going to try a small job before going over to Washington to make sure that everything was in working order.

In less time than it takes to tell Chief Goods and two of his stalwart braves, Messrs. Bell and Grover hastened to the postoffice.

Sure enough there were the packages, all wrapped in brown paper. There was every indication the police say that they were bombs.

Chief Goods, however, was not afraid. Bravely he picked up one of the packages and as he did so it is reported that a confederate of the joker stood at a safe distance and uttered a noise, giving an imitation of something exploding. The chief, however, was undaunted and continued his work of unwrapping the mysterious package which it was found contained some empty tin cans.

The other package also contained the same.

The police were disappointed over the find and left in disgust. The joker, however, had his inning.

She rushed back to rescue them and was not heard from again, as the floors gave way a moment later.

Operators Not Strong Enough to Fight Companies and Burleson

Chicago, July 3.—S. J. Konenkamp president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, yesterday declared the striking telegrapher of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies went back to work yesterday afternoon.

"The strike was declared off because we are not strong enough to fight the government as well as the companies," Konenkamp said.

Konenkamp issued a statement in which Postmaster General Burleson was taken to task for "marshaling the government agencies to fight against the workers" and which said "his party must bear the blame."

With Burleson aiding the companies in the strike, violation of the law against sending telegrams from city to city by trains and through the mails was permitted, the statement declared.

"We have been doubly unfortunate in having to deal with Burleson as a government representative," said the statement. "The combined forces are too strong for us. But this fight will continue along legitimate union lines. We are not beaten and we will carry on until our rights are established."

Washington, July 3—President W. F. McDonald, of the local Telegraphers' Union, upon being informed that the strike was officially called off, made the following statement:

"We won the strike, even though we apparently lost. We won in that we have discovered the weak timber in our craft—the members of our union who worked while we were out."

Practically all of the strikers returned to work last night at their old rate.

THEN AND NOW

One hundred and forty-three years ago tomorrow the liberty bell in Philadelphia rang out in celebration of American independence. Tomorrow the bells will proclaim independence for all countries.

The noble band on July 4, 1776, affixed their names to the Declaration of Independence did so under the shadow of the gibbet. Today the principles for which they contended are recognized throughout the civilized world. The Fourth of July is not now an event restricted to the United States, but it has become an international occasion, when lovers of Liberty rejoice at the downfall of autocracy and the advent of an era proclaims all men free and equal.

The Fourth of July of 1919 will be one long to be remembered. Considerable anxiety prevailed this time last year. The issue between democracy and autocracy was unsettled. It looked as if the latter was holding the whip handle. Ere the year had passed away, however, the mailed fist was hanging helpless, and the Hun colossus anxious to throw up the sponge. The battle for Liberty was over. Right had triumphed over might.

America has much for which to be thankful at this anniversary of the birth of the nation. One hundred and forty-three years ago it was battling with the mother country, at that time ruled by a weak ministry and a demented king, whose mother was a German. Seven years later, after the principles for which our forefathers fought had been acknowledged as just, the infant nation began to grow. While despised by monarchs at the outset, it is now one of the foremost powers of the globe.

THE PRICE OF WHISKY

Several weeks ago the police made a descent upon a negro's residence in the northwestern section of the city and captured twenty-one half pint bottles of whisky. It was learned that the darkey had been selling the liquor at $2.50 per half pint—ten dollars a quart. The accused was held for the action of the grand jury.

Rates, it seems, have advanced materially since that time. Two negroes last night had a member of their race arrested on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. In the Police Court this morning the complainants alleged they had given the accused twelve dollars with which to purchase a quart of whisky. He had failed to procure the liquor and refused to refund the money. He offered to return ten dollars provided the charge was withdrawn, and the complainants agreeing to drop the case upon this condition, alleged the embezzler paid that amount and was released.

BUSINESS OF MOONSHINING

With the advent of the new dry era in the United States there will be much interest felt in the methods adopted for the enforcement of the law. Whatever else may be said about the liquor dealers in this section of the United States it must be admitted that they have generally been scrupulous in the observance of the statutes. One of the reasons for this doubtless was the fact that a license to sell liquor was a valuable privilege not to be lightly risked. Another was the growing tendency toward temperance, the voluntary abstaining from intoxicating liquors on the part of those who recognized the evils of over indulgence, and who also regarded the saloon as an undesirable influence in American politics. But with the whole business placed under the ban there will be much curiosity regarding the enforcement of the law.

Although Maine was the first State to adopt Prohibition as a principle it was in the South that the present day wave began, and strangely enough, it is in certain Southern States that moonshining is conducted upon a large and profitable scale. A special dispatch from Macon, Georgia, brings the information that the business of the United States Court for that district is larger than at any time in its history, and that most of it deals with the illicit manufacturing of whisky. In one week no less than 50 defendants were arraigned in moonshining cases to plead guilty or prepare for trial for the next term of court. On the docket there are nearly 200 cases in which the charge is the illegal manufacture of whisky. Some weeks ago an impartial investigator was sent into the State of Georgia to report upon the manner in which Prohibition was working out there. He announced that it was a great success, that no one cared to have the law repealed, and he followed this with the naive statement that there were 5000 illicit distilleries in Georgia.—(Philadelphia Inquirer.

HIS PLEADING TOO WARM

Winchester, July 3.—While addressing a Staunton jury Tuesday evening in defense of Dr. J. S. DeJarnett, Superintendent of Western State Hospital, who had been sued for $50,000, Charles Curry, a prominent Staunton lawyer, narrowly escaped being severely burned. He was making an impassioned plea for his client, and in emphasizing a point brought his hand violently against his hip pocket. A box of matches therein exploded, setting fire to the lawyer's clothing. Spectators fought the flames while the lawyer made frantic efforts to remove his outer clothing. Judge Richard S. Kerr, who was presiding, joined in the general laughter when the fire was subdued. The argument concluded within 15 minutes. The jury brought in a verdict for DeJarnett.

Hawaiian Singers and Players
AT CHAUTAUQUA
Instrumental and Vocal Artists

The Chautauqua program will present a distinct novelty this year in the Hawaiian Singers and Players. The popularity of the haunting Hawaiian melody was never greater than now. Mr. George W. Vierra and his talented company are everywhere recognized as the leading Hawaiian artists now in America. Their sweet mellow voices blend like a perfect instrument, while their instrumentations possess aesthetic charms of tone color and human qualities that excite the most subtle emotions. The dreamy, langourous melodies float out to audiences and inspire the best that is in human nature. The programs have been carefully selected and rare enjoyment is in store for those who hear this company at Chautauqua.

"Each number on the program kept the audience spellbound;" "Their singing is almost marvelous;" "Charmed their audience with wierd, wailing, harmonious music;" "It was with a glad hand that we welcomed them back for the third time." These are a few of the press comments that have been called forth by the appearance of this company in other towns.

It is predicted that this town will be ready to add its commendation to that which the Hawaiian Company has already received. They will appear on the last day at Chautauqua.

BABY KILLED BY AUTO

"Little Mother" Wheels Infant Brother Into Path of Machine On South Broadway.

Disregarding her mother's instructions to stay on her own front pavement, 12-year-old Helen Bodiniak, 620 South Bond street, Baltimore, on Monday wheeled her 11-months-old brother Walter across the street at Broadway and Fleet street, where an automobile driven by Samuel S. Miller struck the baby's carriage and killed the infant instantly.

According to Miller's story, his view of the girl with the baby carriage was cut off by two other automobiles. He declares that as he went to pass one of the machines, the girl wheeled the baby carriage directly in his path. After the accident, he took the baby in his automobile to the Church Home Infirmary, where it was pronounced dead. Then he surrendered to Patrolmen Classen and Vaeth.

Mrs. Caroline Bodiniak was doing her week's washing when Helen asked if she might take her baby brother out for a ride. The mother consented but enjoined the youngster not to take the baby away from in front of the house. It was when the girl disobeyed her mother's injunction that the accident occurred.

RAID ON A STILL

Dry Enforcers Pour Out 1,500 Gallons of Beer and Wine

Danville, Va., July 3.—Federal and prohibition officers report making the most successful raid on an illicit liquor establishment for months, capturing four men, two of whom are prominent farmers of Pittsylvania county. The men, who have been required to give $500 bond for appearance in the Federal court and $100 for the State court, are W. R. Palmer, William Oakes, A. P. Kendricks and Irvin Hall.

The three officers crept up on the place at night and lay in wait until daylight, so maneuvering the raid that the escape of the operators was cut off by a deep creek. They all surrendered.

The plant, one of the most complete found recently, was effectually destroyed and 1,500 gallons of beer and light wine poured out.

DECREASE IN ARRESTS

Drop From Two Hundred to One In Chicago Under New Order of Things

Chicago, July 3.—Only one arrest was recorded at the South Clark Street Police Station Tuesday night, as against an average of more than 200 a night. Lieutenant McMahon, in command of the district, which had a large number of saloons until yesterday, said that "in the old days" the station had housed as many as 300 prisoners a night. "Cleaning the district," which is the southern half of the central business section, used to mean picking up persons from door ways and alleys, the lieutenant said. A detail was sent out each night for the purpose, he added, and last night when this detail had reported the district as "clean," they had made out a single arrest.

Chicago's "bone dry lid" was securely clamped down yesterday after Tuesday's brief respite, when about half of the city's 6,000 saloons sold 2 3-4 per cent beer and light wines.

Today a thousand saloons were open, but only soft drinks were sold. The police have been ordered ridigly to enforce the State search and seizure law, which prohibits the sale of beverages containing more than one-half of 1 per cent. alcohol.

Independence Day in 1919

You may feel, as so many others do, that the Fourth of July in 1919 has, and should have, a new significance. The Fathers of this nation fought a strong enemy that they might gain political freedom for themselves and their children's children.

The Sons of the nation have just been fighting that they might give political freedom to others.

The one thing we ought to be proudest of, and celebrate most enthusiastically, is not so much the freedom they have won for us and others, as the fact that they were willing to fight for it.

And we ought to pause long enough from noise, and games and gaiety, to resolve with some solemnity, that nothing we can do shall be left undone, to keep and perpetuate what has been gained.

For the Convenience of Our Customers We Will Be Open 1-2 Day, July 4.

That's one of the uses of such a holiday; we're all going to quit business and make it a day

Wilson Will Devote Much Time to Address Which Will Cover a Wide Range

Aboard the U. S. S. George Washington, July 3.—President Wilson's address to Congress on his return to Washington will be the longest and most comprehensive state paper of his administration, covering an unprecedently wide range of subjects. Mr. Wilson is devoting much time daily to the working out of his address.

The burden of his argument will deal with the necessity, as he sees it, of acceptance by the Senate of the peace treaty without any amendments or reservations whatsoever. The reasons for this necessity he proposes to clear up thoroughly. They are in the main the same reasons upon which was based the Peace Conference's refusal to permit China to sign with reservations—reasons which the President will argue are fully operative also as regards the United States.

The President will not visit New York on his arrival, but will proceed to Washington in a special train from Hoboken. The address to Congress will be his first comprehensive public utterance, though he is expected to make a brief address aboard ship on July 4 which, however, will be strictly along general patriotic lines, without touching on the all absorbing peace questions.

NEW REVOLT BREWING

Copenhagen, July 3.—A brand new revolution is brewing in revolt torn Germany. Berlin and Hamburg are practically in a state of seige. Clashes between radicals and government troops in Dusseldorf have resulted in that city being declared in a state of seige also.

Twenty thousand laborers handling the distribution of food in Berlin threaten to strike regardless of the fact that a famine will result and chaos reign. In connection with this labor agitation a Spartican coup is feared. The Spartacans have smuggled guns from Hamburg to Berlin in coal cars. Attempts were made yesterday to blow up huge stocks of food in Hamburg.

Government forces have occupied the principal buildings in Berlin. Troops with machine guns are on hand and soldiers are patrolling the streets. Traffic is at a standstill.

Many factories, including those that have reopened since the signing of the armistice have been closed because of the disorders.

HALF MILLION FIRE IN CORDAGE PLANT

Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—Half a million dollars' damage was done by fire which destroyed warehouses of the Indianapolis Cordage Company here yesterday. Twelve thousand bales of sisal for binder twine was of sisal for binder twine was among the stock consumed by the flames.

Within threie minutes after the blaze started the fiber was a seething furnace. Fire deparemnt officials said it would be impossible to quench the flames within two days. Defective wiring was blamed.

This play will be presented on Chautauqua with a full cast and five complete sets of scenery. It is particularly adapted to please the audiences in Chautauqua towns and is a worthy successor to the plays which have delighted Chautauquans in the past. A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

Courtesy At A Distance

When we speak face-to-face with people we are naturally courteous, but for some obscure reason we sometimes become curt when we telephone. This may be the result of an effort to be concise, but it's well to remember that a smile tempers the conversation and becomes an important factor in keeping business pleasant.

Courtesy over the wires is fully as important as courtesy in face-to-face conversation.

TO RATIFY PACT NEXT WEEK.

Blockade on Germany Will be Lifted And Prisoners Returned When Treaty is O. K'd.

Pars, July 3.—The German national assembly will ratify the peace treaty early next week, and President Ebert will enforce the terms immediately upon ratification.

The Big Five were notified to this effect by a communication from the Bauer government yesterday in reply to the allied note that the blockade must remain in force until the treaty is ratified by the Germans.

The Germans in their reply express the hope that simultaneously with the lifting of the blockade the repatriation of the German prisoners of war will begin. It is generally believed this request will be granted.

Much optimism was caused in official circles by the German reply, though it was somewhat counteracted by Berlin reports received by the French foreign office that the German communists are openly boasting they will start a revolution in a few days, backed by money from Bela Kun, the Hungarian Soviet chief.

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Courthouse of said City on Saturday, June 14th, 1919.

Present, Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Judge.

In the matter of the petition of electors for a change of the form of Government of the City of Alexandria, under the act of the General Assembly, approved March 20th, 1916.

E. Downham, Richard E. Sweeney and T. A. Moore or their successors in office comprising the electoral board of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be and they are hereby directed to take such steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of the city of Alexandria, Va., at an election which said electorial board is hereby directed to hold on the 22nd. day of July, 1919. for determination of the question of whether said proposed change in the form of government of the City of Alexandria shall be adopted or not.

Said election shall be conducted the manner prescribed by law for the conduct of regular election and by the regular election officers of said city.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria for at least thirty days prior to said election and said electorial board is further directed to give all due publicity to said election, that under the law they are required to give of regular elections.

RUN DOWN SYSTEM BUILT UP IN TWO WEEKS

CHASCO-VIN, An Old Formula Prescribed by Doctors, Even to This Day, Guaranteed to Do So or Money Refunded. A Real Spring Tonic That Brings the Old Pep Back.

Thos who are weak and run down from sickness, overwork, worry or any other cause, can take nothing better than Chasco-Vin, an old compound prescribed by doctors more than anything else, consisting principally of Iron, Manganese, Hypophosphites, Nux-Vomica, Cinchona, Gentian and Native Wine.

It improves the appetite, increases the strength and vitality, often as much as 100 per cent and brings the old pep back. It has done this for thousands of others and will do the same for you.

To get the full benefit of Chasco-Vin, adults take a table-spoonful after each meal and at bedtime. Don't forget it. At this season of the year nearly everyone needs a good tonic

The local agent for Chasco-Vin is Edgar Warfield, jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

The 1919 Revue Company
AT CHAUTAUQUA
The Latest Popular Song Hits

The six young ladies who make up the Revue Company were chosen from hundreds who have had Chautauqua and Lyceum experience. They were selected for ability, attractiveness and their great possibilities in ensemble work. In the varied program which they render each has an opportunity to demonstrate her particular ability. A professional coach has given special attention to the ensemble work of the company and no effort has been spared to make each number on the program a finished product.

How would you like to hear the latest song hits that are being whistled and sung right now in the big cities, like New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia? The Revue Company presents these in the most up-to-date fashion. The songs are introduced in a novel manner with lively action and striking costumes. There will be solos, quartette singing, an instrumental trio, readings and novelties.

The beautiful and striking costumes which are used are of the best materials and comprise six complete changes. There are six ensemble numbers in which all six of the girls appear in costume. These numbers are especially worth-while and would form an extraordinary program even if unsupported by the solo, duet, trio and quartette instrumental and vocal numbers.

This is without doubt one of the best concert and entertaining companies ever presented on any Chautauqua. Be sure to hear them.

ALEXANDRIA CHAUTAUQUA JULY 12-18

THE PIETRO MORDELIA COMPANY
Italian Musicians AT CHAUTAUQUA

The Italians have an enviable reputation as musicians. They take to it as a duck does to water. Their music is most delightful. Within the last few years they have developed a big hit in musical instruments. It is known as the "piano-accordian." It is a queer instrument and in the hands of a master musician such as Pietro Mordelia, is capable of affording most pleasing music. Be sure to hear it at Chautauqua, on the opening day.

During the past two years on our Chautauqua and previous to this wherever they appeared, Pietro Mordelia and his company, consisting of the Misses Golding and Buck, were an unqualified success in every town. Miss Golding is an artist with the violin. Miss Buck, as an entertainer and vocalist, is sure to please. And Mr. Mordelia himself is capable of holding an audience an entire evening without assistance. He is a musician and novelty entertainer without a superior in his chosen field. A real treat is in store for lovers of music and entertainment on the opening afternoon and evening of Chautauqua.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
